

SEVEN INMATES MADE ESCAPE FROM STATE HOSPITAL LAST NIGHT

Harvey Neville, Local Colored Man, Was Among the Number—Escape Was Made
About 8:30 o'Clock—Institution Officials
Decline to Make Any Statement to Press

Seven inmates of Jacksonville State Hospital made their escape from the institution about 8:30 o'clock Thursday night and at the time of going to press none of them had been apprehended.

Owing to the fact that officials of the institution declined to make any statement, but few details of the escape were learned.

The local police department was notified of the escape and asked to aid in apprehending the men. However, but a meager description was given, and this of only three of the men, so that the force was working practically in the dark.

One of the men who escaped was Harvey Neville, a local colored man, who was placed in the institution several weeks ago. The police say he is harmless, but as to the others, no statement could be made. The other two whose names the police learned, were Frank LeMasters and Frank Burkhardt.

PARLIAMENT IS DISSOLVED BY ORDER OF KING

Also Summons New Parliament to Meet on November 30

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Oct. 26.—The king at Sandringham today signed a proclamation dissolving parliament which had lived four of its constitutional five years, and summoning the new parliament to meet on November 20. The country is now without a parliament but has plenty of candidates for the next one.

The only notable event of the day was the issuance of Premier Bonar Law's manifesto. This contained no remarkable surprises and the greater part of it was devoted to enlargement of his policies outlined at the Unionist meeting which elected him leader. He proposes to abolish the cabinet secretariat, which has been criticised as expensive and unconstitutional by the opponents of the late government and to transfer British representation at the league of nations to the foreign office.

He intends to ratify the Irish treaty and call the British dominions to a conference to develop empire affairs. There was no statement of policy in the management of British affairs in the near east and that it is likely to be demanded by Mr. Bonar Law's campaigning critics.

The prime minister made his first campaign speech today at Glasgow where being of Scotch extraction, he had an enthusiastic welcome. He reaffirmed the points of his manifesto.

The former premier, Mr. Lloyd George, did not waste his day. He spoke before a large audience of non-conformists in Whitefield tabernacle in London, where there was plenty of cheer. Mr. Lloyd George was in his breeziest form. Earlier in the day he and Lord Birkenhead were guests at the annual oyster feast given by the Colchester Municipality. Although it was supposed to be a non-partisan social affair, Lord Birkenhead made a defense of the conservative members of the cabinet who stood by Lloyd George. The former premier made a few remarks without bringing in politics.

COMMITTEE FILES FINANCIAL REPORT

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The Democratic National committee in its first financial report filed today with the clerk of the house of representatives showed receipts to date of $80,512. Expenditures amounted to nearly $20,000 more than receipts which was ordered by loans, the largest being from Harrison Nesbit of Pittsburgh, chairman of the finance committee.

REARRESTED ON ROBBERY CHARGE

Chicago, Oct. 26.—George Kelly, alias Lester Sullivan 27 years old released today after serving a year for alleged connection with the stabbing of a park policeman was rearrested as a suspect in connection with a $30,000 jewelry robbery at Clinton, Ia.

ESTATES ON NORTH SHORE ARE SHELLED BY ROOKIE SOLDIERS

Commandant of Fort Sheridan Summons Court of Inquiry

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Brigadier General Van Horn Moseley, commandant of Fort Sheridan today summoned a court of inquiry to investigate whether or not a second lieutenant by act or intent directed the barrage from a one pounder that missed its target Lake Michigan and shelled estates owned by Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, Cyrus H. McCormick and Francis W. Farwell late yesterday.

General Moseley explained that the one pounder was fired by a "rookie" squad under command of a second lieutenant. The trenches from which it was fired ordinarily run north and south paralleling the lake shore. The target is a wide expanse of Lake Michigan from which shipping is barred, he said.

"But for some reason I cannot express the gun was trained directly on the north shore estates and started firing," General Moseley said. "But I promise that he will get his as soon as the board of inquiry reports."

Four of the shells hit the Francis W. Farwell mansion. Officers wrecked the flower beds and scored lawns on the estates of Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick and Cyrus H. McCormick. The Farwell mansion was unoccupied except for two servants whose screams vied in loudness with the whistling whine of the shells. A few seconds later the Farwell gardener nearly fainted to see a fountain of foam spurt upward in front of him. Mrs. J. V. Farwell whose home adjoins the Francis Farwell mansion was walking in her garden when a shell buried itself in the lawn.

STEERS GLARE IN AT BACK WINDOWS

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Eight stampeding steers being driven to a packing house, spread terror among residents of the vicinity of the stock yards late today when they made a break for freedom. Several hours later all but two of the animals had been captured.

Patrol wagons, automobiles, motorcycles, and horses were pressed into service by policemen, cowboys from the stock yards and citizens in the roundup. Armed with rifles, pistols and lariats the searching parties scoured the section for some time only to learn that the fleeing cattle had just passed.

Shortly after the animals broke loose police stations in the vicinity began receiving telephone calls from frantic residents who asked relief. They said the steers were tearing up yards and, as one person put it, "glaring in at back windows."

With the search pressed to the utmost six of the animals were finally corralled with the hunt of the other two continuing.

INTEREST SHOWN IN ANNUAL ELECTION

(By The Associated Press)

ROCKFORD, Ill., Oct. 26.—Interest in the annual election of officers for the Northwestern division of the Illinois State Teachers' association here today was very keen among five hundred teachers who attended the opening banquet tonight. A slate backed by the Rockford Teachers' club and purported to have the support of "common teachers" throughout the district has caused the faculty of Rockford high school to withdraw from the club by a vote of 87 to 7. H. C. Muth, president of the Rockford Teachers' club is the candidate for president.

Both factions claim to have the support of the nominating committee of which Superintendent F. R. Ritzman of DeKalb, is chairman.

C. W. Whitten of DeKalb, president of the association stated last night that he was not a party to the controversy and would conduct the election in an open handed, above board manner.

Nominations will be permitted from the floor.

Resolution in support of the new state constitution and asking for increase in the state distributive fund for schools are expected. About 2,000 teachers will attend the session tomorrow.

M'KINLEY DEFENDS TARIFF MEASURE

(By The Associated Press)

NOKOMIS, Ill., Oct. 26.—A speech by United Senator McKinley in which he defended the tariff bill which recently became a law, praised the administration's stand on the soldiers bonus bill and in the recent labor troubles and charged that the recent business depression was due to the Democratic administration and that with the passage of the new tariff law, an era of prosperity is ahead, featured a rally of the Republicans of Montgomery county held here tonight.

FORMER PREMIER TELLS WHAT WE OWE TO ENGLAND

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Oct. 26.—"There are some people who are doomed to be in tempests and storms," began former Premier Lloyd George before a large gathering in Whitefield tabernacle tonight. "My life is one perpetual crisis after another and I had hoped that when I ceased to be responsible for them, I would enjoy a little leisure and repose."

After paying tribute to the great movement led by John Wesley and George Whitefield he described Whitefield as the greatest popular orator produced by the English race.

"A short time ago I had the privilege of talking to John Wesley, at a Methodist gathering," he added.

"I pointed out the effect of the Whitefield-Wesley movement upon the political outlook of England and America."

"America responds to practically the same appeals as England does; you could see it recently in the attitude America adopted toward the Near Eastern question. It was the only country that was in complete sympathy with the attitude of England and that sympathy was overwhelming and real."

It was entirely attributable to the fact that the moral training of America was identical with ours, the old Pilgrim fathers reinforced by the great ideals of Whitefield and Wesley.

"I don't know the exact figures of our debt to America. I am told it is a thousand millions at the present moment. It is nothing to the debt America owes us. I should like to write the balance sheet, debit one thousand and ninety millions, credit, John Wesley and George Whitefield."

"I am not talking about Shakespeare, Burns and Milton, who are all in the account, and Roger Williams and the Pilgrim Fathers. Oh! I could run up a bill against America which would bankrupt even that rich country. They don't keep those accounts in the exchequer, but they are things which matter."

His remarks were greeted with prolonged cheers.

COAL MERCHANTS NAMED COMMITTEE OF FIVE YESTERDAY

Will Appear Before Fact
Finding Committee in Washington

(By The Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 26.—The board of directors and the executive committee of the national association of retail merchants meeting here today named a committee of five to represent the retail coal dealers before President Harding's fact finding committee making a survey of the coal industry and took up the matter of coal being shipped outside the state and sold at a higher price than is permitted under the Ohio fuel administration laws.

The directors also took action directed at the Gyp dealers in the retail trade. The resolution pledged the association to devote its maximum strength to a program of exposing and punishing the short-weight and fraudulent coal dealers.

Coal dealers from states outside Ohio declared they were buying quantities of domestic coal mined in Ohio at $5.50 to $6 a ton at the mine. This they said was the reason Ohio coal dealers could not get much Ohio mined coal at the rates of $3.81 to $5.11 at the mine fixed by the Ohio fuel administration. Ohio dealers declared at the meeting they were being forced to purchase coal from other states.

Homer D. Jones of Chicago, president of the association, declared that as a result of the Ohio law an excess burden was thrown on the car supply. An Ohio mine might have short hauls and quick empty car returns is the mine were shipping to Ohio cities, he said, but instead the cars go long distances outside of the state and likewise cars carrying foreign coal come long distances into the state.

FATHER PRINCIPAL WITNESS AT SON'S TRIAL

(By The Associated Press)

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Judge William F. Bryant of Harrington Nebraska was the principal witness for the defense today at the trial of his son, Eugene Bryant, accused of sending threatening letters to Mrs. Arthur H. Shortwell society matron and wife of a wealthy candy manufacturer.

Young Bryant is charged with sending over 200 letters to Mrs. Shortwell part of them making demands for money and others being of a seditious character.

BRIEFS

(By The Associated Press)

Baron, Wis., Oct. 26.—Mrs. Mary Frank, well known throat Baron county, died at Sleepy Eye, Minn., on her 90th birthday anniversary, shortly after her children had arrived to celebrate her birthday.

Rockford, Ill., Oct. 26.—Winnebago county Pomona Grange at a meeting last night adopted a resolution demanding to know by what right labor has linked the word "farmer" to its name in the "farmer-labor" party. A resolution discrediting the word "farmer" as half of the party title was unanimously adopted.

Mystic, Iowa, Oct. 26.—Robert Whelan, sr., a miner died this afternoon from injuries sustained in a fall of coal at the Arnel mine east of here this morning. No others were injured.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 26.—Dr. Stephen Babcock scientist and inventor of a test for butter fat in milk, celebrated his 79th birthday today, the honor guest of the Wisconsin Dairymen's association county agents, farmers institute workers and boys and girls club members. Although 79 years old, on Oct. 22, observance of the occasion was postponed until today.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Nurses should receive a degree of doctor of nursing instead of merely being termed registered nurses, according to speakers today at the Illinois State Association of Graduate Nurses. The nurse then could follow her name with the symbols D. N., instead of R. N. They also advocated that every school of nursing should be attached to a university which could grant degrees.

Ogden, Utah, Oct. 26.—William G. Macdoo former secretary of the treasury campaigning in behalf of the democratic party in the November election is expected to reach here late today. He delivered an address here, later proceeding to Salt Lake City.

Washington, Oct. 26.—W. P. G. Harding, former governor of the federal reserve board, will leave next week for Cuba to survey the financial situation with a view to assisting in the installation of a banking system somewhat similar to the American federal reserve.

Athens, Oct. 26.—A sensation has been created by the demand of the newspaper Vima for a scientific inquiry into the cause of the death of King Alexander of Greece, who died two years ago after a monkey had bitten him. The newspaper intimated the possibility that there was criminal negligence between the time of the bite and of the king's death. What it particularly wants to know is how the accident became irreparable.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Continuation and expansion of American industry of the scientific research activities forced by it during the war, is urged in a statement today by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

"The chamber estimates that approximately half a billion dollars is saved annually as a result of the experimental work now being done, which, it says, has cost him in the neighborhood of $70,000,000."

Decatur, Ill., Oct. 26.—Porter Millikin, president of the Union Iron Works of Decatur and the Decatur Sanitary district board, died this morning.

Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 26.—Yeggmen visited Decatur, Ill., yesterday morning and blew the safe of the Sauer Grain office and postoffice, securing $300 in cash and a quantity of watches and cutlery.

Several residents of the village heard the explosion but supposed it was a shotgun as the sound was so faint and no attention was paid to the detention.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 26.—The Eugene Osborn company of Peoria, dealers in stock and bonds, was incorporated this morning with a capital stock of $10,000.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 26.—Bender's U-Drive-It System of Decatur was incorporated today with a capital stock of $10,000, to deal in, rent and store motor vehicles.

ASKS POLICE TO LOOK FOR WIFE AND CHILD
(By The Associated Press)
St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 26.—Chester G. Burch, local lumberman, today asked police to institute a search for his wife and four year old daughter who have not been heard from since last Friday when they left Clarkins Lake near Jackson, Mich., where they had been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Burch's clothing, which she sent here by express had been received.

BIG TIM MURPHY
RELEASED THURSDAY
Chicago, Oct. 26.—Timothy D. (Big Tim) Murphy, arrested late yesterday as a suspect in connection with a warehouse robbery in which whisky was stolen was discharged today. Police said they had no evidence. Murphy is now out on bond following his conviction in the Dearborn Street Station $500,000 mail robbery.

BANKERS AND R. R. MEN OPPOSED TO COMMISSION PLAN

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The interstate commerce commission today threw its methods of supervising issue of railroad securities open for discussion before representative railroad officials and investment bankers whom it summoned to Washington seeking advice particularly as to whether it should hereafter require the sale of such issues to the highest bidders after open competitive bidding. The proposal was met with emphatic objections by both railroad men and bankers while Judge Robert S. Lovett, chairman of a special committee of railroad executives appointed to formulate views challenged the legal power of the commission to institute such practice.

Otto Kahn of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., expressed the opinion that such a system might prove ruinous to railroads, while Jackson E. Reynolds, president of the First National bank of New York, appeared at the end of long day discussion said the commission in matter "could do its worst and not hurt us (the bankers); but hurt the railroads."

Dwight R. Marrow of J. P. Morgan & Co., A. H. Harris, vice president of the New York Central and Ferdinand Johnston, counsel for the association of railroad security holders were among the speakers called.

Mr. Kahn first spokesman for the bankers said that the relationship of great banking houses to the railroad corporations had brought into existence the practice of private underwriting of larger loans. It had assisted the carriers, he contended, in getting loans successfully floated in making up securities of a form and type to markets and above all, had maintained a stable broad investment market on which railway securities could always be bought and sold.

For many years to come, railroads will annually need large amounts of new capital Mr. Kahn declared and it will be a primary consideration with the interstate commerce commission to maintain the stable broad securities market from which this capital can be drawn.

PROSECUTION CLOSES
CASE AGAINST VOLIVA
(By The Associated Press)
WAUKEGAN, Ill., Oct. 26.—The prosecution closed its case today against Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of Zion, Ill., charged with criminal libel by Thomas H. Nelson, former Voliva disciple and at present pastor of the Grace Missionary church of Zion. The prosecution pictured Nelson as a man who cannot leave his home without being jeered by school children and adults and attributed this fact to alleged libelous articles contained in handbills which Voliva is alleged to be the author.

One of these handbills was introduced in evidence. In it Nelson was referred to as a "poor old Tom Cat," "A fool," "the wild man of Borneo," "a down and out, thoroughly discredited windbag," "a monumental, brazen faced, shameless old liar," and a "dirty, foul mouthed blather-skite."

C. P. Barnes, counsel for the case made a motion to have the case dismissed which was denied by Judge Cla're C. Edwards. He then announced that evidence will be introduced tomorrow to show that Voliva's alleged denunciation of Nelson was founded on "truth and good motives."

Voliva appeared in court today accompanied by several of his disciples. His attorney tried to have women barred from the court room asserting that "the ladies will be shocked if they stay," but the court refused to oust them.

DECREASE SHOWN IN
ROBBERIES IN CHICAGO
Chicago, Oct. 26.—Robbery in Chicago has decreased 48 percent in the past three months as compared with the preceding three months and has decreased 40 percent as compared with the corresponding period last year, according to a report of the Chicago Crime Commission made public to night. Burglary, the report said, has decreased 31 percent in the three months period as compared with the preceding three months and 16 percent as compared with the same period last year.

U. S. MAY HAVE AN OBSERVER AT CONFERENCE

Government Will Not Take Part Directly in Negotiations

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The United States probably will be represented at the Near East peace conference by an official observer.

There is virtually no chance that the Washington government will participate directly in the conference however, or be a signatory of the treaty of peace to be evolved.

Decision of allied governments to invite American participation as a party to the peace negotiations it can be said on authority finds the attitude of the Washington government unchanged.

Paris despatches indicate that the invitation is to be presented to Secretary Hughes thru the British, French and Italian embassies in Washington. That it will be met with every courtesy and probably with expressions that testify to American appreciation of the importance by those powers to their proposal that the United States share in the difficult task before the Lausanne conference is to be expected.

At the same time however, the embassies will be very fully advised that as a non-belligerent in the war between the allies and Turkey, the United States feels that it cannot have any direct share in a peace conference to bring that war to an end.

American interests are too deeply involved in the final solution of the problem of the Turkish straits, however, and also in the immunities that American citizens shall enjoy in Turkish territory, both in commercial and religious matters to permit the Washington government to stand wholly aside from the peace parley. Secretary Hughes made this plain recently during the most tense moments of the Near Eastern crisis when he refused to discuss in any political questions involved but declared that American policy demanded freedom of the straits and adequate protection of racial and religious minorities in Turkish territory.

MRS. FRANCES HALL AND BROTHER ARE NAMED BY WITNESS
Mrs. Jane Gibson Said to Have Given Them to Authorities
(By The Associated Press)
NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 26.—Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, widow of the slain rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist, and her brother, Henry Stevens, are the man and woman named in the sworn statement of Mrs. Jane Gibson, self-styled eye-witness of the double slaying of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills on the night of September 14 last.

This statement was not made by the authorities, but became known tonight thru the issuance of a statement by Mrs. Hall's attorney, Timothy Pfeiffer, denying the facts of Mrs. Gibson's account and declaring that neither the rector's widow nor her brother were on the Phillips farm on the night of the slaying.

"Mrs. Gibson's statements are contrary to the facts," Mrs. Hall was in her home all evening, Barbara Tough, one of the maids, was out that night and Louisa Gelat, the other maid was on the back step. There was no one else but a little seven year old niece in the house with Mrs. Hall. But there may have been one visitor.

"Henry Stevens' identification as one of the quietest seen on the farm is also contrary to fact. Henry was at LaVallette, New Jersey all that night."

Mrs. Gibson in her statement it is known, declared that she has seen four persons on the night of the murders under the crab apple tree where two days later the bodies of the rector and the choir singer were found.

The cries of Mrs. Mills, which Mrs. Gibson declared "still ring in my ears at night," had hardly echoed the woman farmer said, when the second woman in the quartet screamed in a terrified tone, "Oh, Henry."

WIDOW OF SWITCHMAN
IS AWARDED $35,000
Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 26.—The widow of John D. Shaw, a switchman who died May 20, 1920 as a result of injuries received in the Chicago and Alton yards at Roadhouse, Illinois was given a verdict of $35,000 damages by a jury in the circuit court here today. Shaw was run over by a switch engine engaged in interstate commerce. This enabled the widow to bring suit here.

PAN PACIFIC
CONGRESS MEETS
Honolulu, T. H., Oct. 26.—The Pan-Pacific commercial congress attended by delegates from a large number of countries bordering the Pacific Ocean opened its sessions here today after receiving a message from President Harding, pledging his support to the "high ideals of peace, good will and mutual interest."

BELIEVES ARMY STRENGTH SHOULD NOT BE REDUCED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—President Harding's belief that the regular army at its present strength—12,000 officers and 125,000 men—is small as should be contemplated unless there should be a decided change in military conditions throughout the world is stated in a letter to Secretary Weeks, made public today by the war department in order to correct any misapprehensions as to the state of the army asked for in budget estimates for 1923.

The letter was written in reply to a communication from Secretary Weeks, September 21, explaining to the president that while estimates for 12,000 officers and 125,000 men were being submitted, the opinion of military leaders, regular, national guard or reserve was unchanged that the minimum force to carry out the national defense act of 1920, was 13,000 officers and 150,000 men.

"Within the limiting figures allowed to the war department by the bureau of the budget namely, $312,932,309, it is not possible."

"I have had under advisement your letter of September 21," the president's letter said, "wherein you point out budget requirements of the next fiscal year have questioned the formulation of the war department estimate on a basis which cannot be justified except by the absolute necessity for immediate economy."

"Although there has been some increase in the limiting sum since the date of your letter I understand that there still must be a very appreciable curtailment in the military program for next year. Disappointing as such a course must be, I do not believe that we are justified in exceeding the governmental resources for the coming year. Nevertheless there are limits in reduction beyond which we cannot go, even in the praiseworthy cause of economy, without destroying the excellent foundation now laid for our national defense and forfeiting the accrued benefits of world war experience."

"It is intended to adhere to the purposes and provisions of the national defense act of 1920. Recommendations of our war tried military advisers as to the essential requirements for the effective and satisfactory operation of that act cannot be ignored. I believe that the army is now as small as should be contemplated unless there should be a decided change in military conditions throughout the world."

KAW INDIANS HEADED BY WOMAN

(By The Associated Press)

ARKANSAS CITY, Oct. 26.—For the first time in history the Kaw tribe of Indians is headed by a woman.

At a recent gathering of tribe members Mrs. Lucy Toyiah Eads, of Kaw City, was chosen chief, taking the place of the late Pawhuska as her assistant.

The Kaws for fifteen years have been without a leader, but recent developments in their fight for land is said to have brought out the need for a leader and Mrs. Eads was selected as the one best fitted to head the tribe. Old Wah Shuga was the last chief of the tribe.

A THOUGHT

Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.—1 John 3:21.

Shakespeare was forbidden of heaven to have any plans. Neither he nor the sun did, on and morning that they rose together, receive charge from their maker concerning such things. They were both of them to shine on the evil and on the good."—John Ruskin.

One Democratic paper, arguing in favor of cancellation of Europe's debt to us, declares that the loaning of the money is not an issue. Well, it would be, if there were any use to talk about it. The Wilson administration loaned hundreds of millions in violation of law and hundreds of millions have been used by the borrowers to advance their own commercial interests in competition with the United States. But that is past. Mr. Wilson and Mr. McAdoo are not candidates just now. The issue now is the cancellation of the debts, and our guess is that the people of the country will vote against cancellation.

LESS "BOOZE;" MORE AUTOS.

"Coincident with the recent vast increase in the expenditures of national income for automobiles," says John Oakwood, in Forbes Magazine, there has been a tremendous release of expenditures from drink. In 1911, when there were only 199,500 passenger cars produced, there were 2,170,000,000 gallons of wines and liquors consumed in the United States. In 1920, when there were 1,883,000 passenger cars produced, there were only 326,000,000 gallons of wines and liquors consumed. Car production increased in the ratio of 9 1/2 to one; liquor consumption decreased in the ratio of 6 1/2 to one.

"Many a man who once drank more than the full price of a medium priced car each year can now apply those funds to the purchase of a car and its cost of operation."

"In 1918 the wholesale value of passenger cars produced was about $800,000,000; in that year the total revenue taxes collected on booze amounted to $444,000,000 and, of course the expenditures of drinkers were far above that sum. In 1921 the wholesale value of passenger cars produced was over a billion dollars, and the booze bill less than $100,000,000."

"If prohibition has done nothing else for folk in the United States it has at least released funds in many a family budget for paying off automobile installments and gasoline bills, instead of liquor tribute and 'gold cure' bills."

THIS IS FRIDAY.

Is Friday really an unlucky day? asks the Chicago Journal of Commerce. Here is a list of a few of the important historical events that have happened on Friday. Study this list and decide whether the day deserves the ill reputation it has. On Friday—

George Washington was born. Shakespeare was born. Moscow was burned. America was discovered. Richmond was evacuated. The Bastille was destroyed. The Mayflower Pilgrims were landed.

Queen Victoria was married. King Charles was beheaded. Napoleon was born. Julius Cæsar was assassinated. The battle of Waterloo was fought. The battle of Bunker Hill was fought. The battle of New Orleans was fought. The Declaration of Independence was signed.

Records show that in January this year there was a surplus of 646,673 freight cars, idle cars upon the side tracks of the rail-

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

The Secret

By Berton Braley

WHAT makes a house a Home? It's hard to know; Comfort and ease, a hearth fire all aglow, Pictures and books, a sense of peace and rest, Giving to little things a joyous zest— And deep content that naught can overthrow.

WHAT makes a house a Home? It's hard to tell; I know of hovels where the people dwell In poverty, yet neither grinding toil Nor bitter want and suffering can spoil The hominess that holds them in its spell.

WHAT makes a house a Home? It's hard to say; Children to make it merry day by day, Patience and understanding, and an air Of comradeship about it everywhere; Laughter and health and glad robustious play.

WHAT makes a house a Home? The glamor of That spirit ageless, raising man above All other creatures on this vasty earth; The spirit that gives living all its worth. This is the subtle secret, it is Love That makes a house a Home!

TOLD KIWANIS CLUB STORY OF TARVIA

Address Made by Representative of Producing Company — Reports Made of State Convention.

Further reports of the Kiwanis state convention held at Decatur were given at the weekly luncheon of the club at the Peacock Inn Thursday noon. These reports were given by Dr. Thomas Smith, G. A. Sieber, and W. A. Berryman.

Mr. Berryman attended a meeting of secretaries and presented some very interesting facts with reference to work proposed for the organization. Yesterday's address was given by George E. Martin, consulting engineer of the Barrett Co., manufacturers of tarvia. The speaker said that tarvia has been used with success in all parts of the world where good roads and pavements are built. This material was recently selected as the binder for use in the new highway system of Japan. It was chosen especially because of its water proof qualities.

There are six grades of tarvia and Mr. Martin explained in an interesting way some of the general facts of preparation and pointed out the special values that are claimed for tarvia in various classes of pavement. Some general facts with reference to the manufacture were also presented in a way which held the interest of the company. Francis Bantz was introduced as a new member of the club and the attendance prizes were given to Rev. Father Formaz and E. W. Brown. The guest list of the day included A. R. Green, Naperville; O. M. Fish, St. Louis; Lieut. Hardin, Minneapolis; and Gay Hutson, Jacksonville.

Mrs. Luberia Murphy of Palmyra, Mo., has been visiting J. L. Snyder on East College avenue.

LOCAL REAL ESTATE BOARD IN SESSION

Report of Recent State Convention Made by Homer L. Ranson — Statement of Local Board's Purposes Made.

A very interesting and instructive meeting of the local real estate board was held Thursday evening at the office of C. O. Bayha, with Chairman C. H. Story, presiding.

One of the principal features of the program was the report of the annual state convention held last week in Decatur, and given in full by Homer L. Ranson, the local secretary.

Among items of importance discussed at the convention were bills of pending legislation, the new constitution, means and methods of handling real estate transactions to the best advantage to seller, buyer, and broker, establishing higher ideals and eliminating the unscrupulous and dishonest real estate agent and loan shark, minimum rates of commission, maximum rate of commission, individual and multiple listing system, exclusive listing, city additions and numerous phases of the real estate business.

Mr. Ranson reported that already seventeen realtors here had their license revoked by the state board for various reasons.

The names of five of these men have been published in various newspapers of the state that have found their way to Jacksonville, and no doubt all have been published in one or more papers.

A member of the board said last night:

"The local board regrets that some men get into the work who are dishonest, as we find in all other lines of everything, but we are glad to know we now have a way to get a check on these agents, and see to it that they are disqualified and the public is freed of their impositions and misrepresentations."

We wish to put our organization at the disposal of the general public to serve in all enterprises of public policy, and wish to co-operate with all local organizations for the advancement of all community interests and especially the growth and development of our city.

"One object of prime importance is to assist the farmers to refund their farm loans as they mature where the present loan can not be continued. We are striving to render every possible service to the general public in a thorough legitimate and business like manner that shall foster confidence and fair consideration to all parties."

Following are the names of state licensed realtor who are members of the local board: C. O. Bayha, George E. Dewese, L. T. Erickson, A. C. Foster, John Hodgson, William Kastrup, J. T. Mutch, J. M. McCullough, Homer L. Ranson, Charles H. Story, W. S. Smith, Otis E. Taylor, J. W. Ward, and E. B. Wiswell.

AGED RESIDENT OF WAVERLY PASSED AWAY

Venerable Edwin Batty Called by Death Thursday Afternoon—Funeral to be Held Saturday Afternoon.

Waverly, Oct. 226.—The death of Edwin Batty, a long time resident of Waverly, occurred at 3:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the family home. Death was due to the infirmities of age, as Mr. Batty was past eighty-eight years of age.

For the past forty years Mr. Batty had been a resident of Waverly. For most of that period he followed the lumber and milling business, retiring a few years since on account of advancing years. He was a veteran of the Civil war and a member of the Baptist church.

A man of strict honesty and high ideals, Mr. Batty had thru the years come to be known at one of the most prominent residents of the community.

Surviving are the widow, two daughters and one son, Mrs. Ella Styles of Chicago, Mrs. J. H. Diddie of Waverly and John Batty of Chicago, also survives.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Baptist church, in charge of Rev. J. W. Allen, the pastor. Interment will be made in the East cemetery.

MANCHESTER WOMEN IN ALL DAY MEETING

Methodist Church Aid Society Met With Mrs. Amy Whowell Thursday—Other Manchester News of Interest.

Manchester, Oct. 25.—The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church held an all day meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Amy Whowell. Most of the day was spent in quilting and a great deal was accomplished in this line. At noon burgo soup and pie was served to about forty.

The house had been prettily decorated for the occasion, Hallows'en tokens being everywhere in evidence.

Dollar Social Held

The Ladies Aid of the Christian church held a Dollar Social Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. D. Chapman. The members responded to roll call by giving a "dollar rhyme" telling how they had earned the dollar they contributed. This feature of the program proved very entertaining. The house had been decorated for the event in true Hallows'en style. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

During the afternoon Mrs. George Blevins was presented a handsome quilt made by the ladies, the gift being an appreciation of the good work done by Mrs. Blevins in the society in past months. Those present were Mrs. Stephen Cooper, Mrs. Fred Ruble, Mrs. George Blevins, Mrs. Ella Curtis, Mrs. R. H. Walton, Mrs. T. M. Whitlock, Mrs. Clyde Chapman, Mrs. John Blake, Mrs. Charles Lettze, Mrs. C. D. Chapman, Mrs. S. G. Sykes of White Hall.

The Story of a Girl Who Didn't Know She Was Bad

If we were to ask you to tell us the type of photoplay you like best, we know that your answer would be something like this: "Give me a plausible (interesting) story, well acted by players who are chosen only for their fitness to portray their roles, directed by an intelligent and competent director, with suitable settings and new fashions in clothes, and I am sure the result would be a satisfactory screen entertainment." In "Youth to Youth," we have a motion picture which fills each one of these requirements admirably. And in it, the charming Billie Dove is seen at the head of a distinguished cast. We're sure you'll like this film.

At the close of the program came a business session and later a time was spent socially. Dainty refreshments were served by a committee including Mrs. B. R. Bishop, Mrs. Florence Combs, Mrs. Charles Watt. The leader for the next meeting will be Mrs. Earl Hembrough.

News Notes.

Mrs. James Campbell of Lynnville, who has been visiting for several days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. R. Jones and family, returned home Thursday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Jones and Rev. and Mrs. I. H. Fuller attended the burgoon supper at the Lynnville Christian church Thursday evening.

Mrs. R. C. Megginson, son Dewey and daughter Irene, and Mr. Robert Megginson are visiting in Chesterfield for a few days.

Mrs. Johnson Sheppard, who has been ill for the past two weeks, remains in a very serious condition. Her friends are hoping for an early improvement in her condition.

MATTHEW WAGNER BUILDING LUNCH ROOM

A new confectionery and lunch room, combined with a residence, is being constructed for Matthew Wagner by T. C. Chumley on East State street just beyond the Economy Grocery at the corner of Hardin avenue. The location was chosen to attract trade from the railway stations. The structure is of two story frame construction, 20 by 50 feet, the second story to serve as Mr. Wagner's residence. The building is expected to be ready for occupancy by January 1.

RESIDENCE CHANGES

The C. W. Taylor residence on Grove street will be occupied by Rev. E. L. Pletcher and family following the removal of H. A. Perrin and family from Jacksonville to Joliet. The Pletcher family is now located at 1933 West College avenue. These residence changes will not be made for a number of weeks, the date not having been definitely fixed.

ADDITIONAL ORDERS IN CIRCUIT COURT MADE

Judge E. S. Smith Winds Up Business of May Term of Circuit Court Thursday—Formal Adjudgment Taken.

Judge E. S. Smith was in Jacksonville yesterday for a few hours and made the final orders in the May term of court. Formal adjudgment was taken to the November term, which is to be opened Monday, Nov. 13. Most of the orders made yesterday relate to the suits of Gates Strawn as administrator vs. John Robertson.

There were five or six cases on the docket relating to the affairs of the Strawn estate or the Jacksonville National bank. The docket entries made indicate agreement reached in all these cases. The stipulation filed was in chancery case No. 25, and the facts as therein set forth were applied to all the other cases mentioned and which were dismissed. The title of this case was Gates Strawn as administrator vs. Henry Oakes, et al., bill. On complainant's motion the suit was dismissed as per stipulation on file.

In the suit of H. J. Rodgers vs. Edith Fox, et al., leave to amend the bill in the nature of a supplemental bill was allowed. Rule was made on the defendants to extend the time of answer to this date and plea in answer was filed.

In the suit of George F. Brown and John N. Deatherage vs. Corinne Thompson, brought to enforce mechanic's lien, the cause was referred to the master for hearing.

In the foreclosure suit of John Anderson vs. John Frank, et al., the report of sale and distribution of proceeds as filed Sept. 29th, was refused showing deficiency due. Leave was given the persons objecting to the report to file objections by the first day of the next term of the court.

TO BEGIN PAVEMENT ON COURT STREET

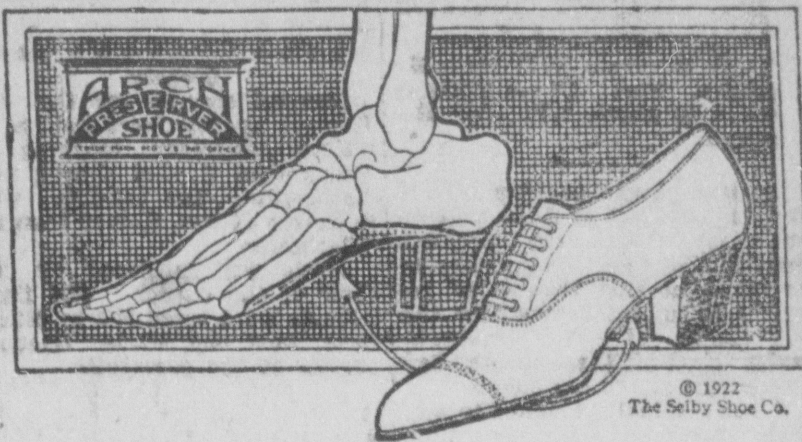

The work on the West College avenue pavement has progressed so satisfactorily that the curb and gutter was completed late Thursday afternoon. This morning the scene of curb and gutter operation will move to West Court street, where the block from Church to Fayette streets is to be paved with asphalt.

George Wiseman will be the inspector of the work there just as he has been on College avenue and other streets where paving has been done.

NEW CARD PROMISED ON CHICAGO & ALTON

Expressed Schedule, Will Be Effective Nov. 12—Morning Train to North Will Be Restored.

Announcement has been made that the Chicago & Alton will issue a new time card effective Sunday, Nov. 12. The action to be taken at this time is in response to urgent demand for the restoration of the numerous trains taken off three months ago on account of the car shortage. It was originally planned to add these trains from time to time without the issuance of a new card, but the management has found this impractical. All the changes have not been outlined, but it is generally understood that trains Nos. 70 and 71 running between Redhouse and Chicago, will be restored. This will again give Jacksonville a train to the north about 6:30 a. m. and from the north about 7:30 p. m. The Hummer from Chicago will also be restored to old time and will leave the city at 6 o'clock. The traveling public will greatly appreciate the revised time card.

Pheasants are reported plentiful on the roads east of the city. At the present time there is only a three day season for shooting the male pheasant and under that rule they have been thriving and increasing.

Mrs. Anna Coultas was a Winchester visitor in the city yesterday.

FUNERALS

Funeral services for the late Wilbur Spencer were held at 11 o'clock Thursday morning at Youngblood Baptist church near Nortonville. The services were in charge of Rev. Homer Evans of Winchester. Music was furnished by the choir of the church. The floral tributes were cared for by Misses Lena, Lois and Marie Spencer, cousins of the deceased. Interment was made in Youngblood cemetery, the bearers being Alva Spencer, Virgil Wallace, Raymond Spencer, Irwin Cain, Henry Cain and William Spencer.

BLIND GIRL HAS BEEN RETURNED TO SCHOOL

Joliet Child Again Placed In School for Blind—Parents Opposed Sending Her Here—Officer Praises Local School.

The following story from the Joliet Herald-News relates to a pupil at the State School for the Blind. She was brought here thru court order issued after her parents had tried to prevent her attendance.

"Little blind Luis, pretty Mexican Luis, her dark sightless eyes seemed always to focus on the quacka 'Wily' was again the pathetic center of interest in Justice McCulloch's court yesterday, because her family had tried to prevent her return to the Jacksonville school for the blind, after the summer vacation.

"Only 14 years old, she is but a little taller, a little darker, a little bit more of a girl than she was scarcely three years ago when she was stricken with blindness, said to be caused by fright at seeing her father fighting in the alley outside the home in North Scott street.

"Little Luis, so pretty, so pathetic, so unfortunate, yet so determined that she knows just what she wants, has a history that is anything but a calm, flowing stream.

"Always has there been trouble over the case, according to Justice McCulloch, Mrs. Margaret Arthur, transient officer and Miss Harle Hurst, school supervising nurse, thru whose combined efforts the blind girl was sent to Jacksonville, who were in court yesterday.

Parents Oppose Education. "Always was the father of Luis antagonistic to the efforts of the school officials to place her where she could have an education and learn to become self-supporting. Because of this her parents hid her away on each vacation that she spent at home, and even moved at times in order to keep her whereabouts secret and to hide her more effectively.

"Nevertheless she was found each time and returned to the school, where she studied, worked, played and was happy after the fashion of childhood.

"Yesterday, clinging closely to her mother—that sad little mother whose face is worried with the untimely sorrows she has been called on to bear—yesterday in court the child's heart

GET TOGETHER MEETING
PLANNED FOR TODAY

Officers of Junior H. S. Parent Teacher Association and Teachers to Meet With Mrs. W. S. Jones this Afternoon.

Mrs. W. S. Jones will this afternoon entertain the officers of the Junior High School Parent-Teacher association and the teachers of the school, together with chairman of committees. Mrs. Jones is president of the association and the meeting was planned by her for the purpose of talking over the plans for the coming year and formulating a working basis.

The association will hold its first regular meeting of the school year sometime about the middle of next month. The meetings this year will not be held monthly but with the school units or once in six weeks.

Various committee chairmen have been named and each chairman will select the members of her committee. It is hoped that the personnel of the working committees will change with each meeting, thus bringing practically all of the members into close touch with the actual work of the organization. It is probable that the motto to be adopted for this year's program will be "A One Hundred Percent Interest."

The meeting this afternoon will be wholly informal in character and will enable all those connected with the organization to become better acquainted with each other and with the plans for the coming months. Mrs. W. D. James is vice president of the association and Mrs. H. W. Mosely, secretary and treasurer.

The chairmen of the various committees are listed below: Membership—Mrs. George E. Baxter. Finance—Mrs. Louis Biggs. Refreshments—Mrs. Owen Graff. Sales—Mrs. W. D. Roberts. At Home—Mrs. J. N. Conover. Improvement—Mrs. H. B. Kamp. Grounds—Mrs. Henry Frisch. Furnishings. Music—Mrs. Abe Wehl. Program—Mrs. J. W. Walton. Entertainment—Mrs. E. Proctor. Some other committee chairmen are yet to be supplied.

BRYAN TO BE
PRINCIPAL SPEAKER

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Williams Jennings Bryan is announced as the principal speaker at the New Testament Church Congress, which is to be held here by individual members of the Disciples of Christ October 14 to 20.

Among those on the program are: Dr. P. H. Welsheimer, Canton, O.; Dr. George P. Taubman, Long Beach, Calif.; Dr. I. N. McCash, Enid, Okla.; Judge T. O. Hathcock, Atlanta, Ga.; Dr. Elmer Ward Cole, South Bend, Ind.; Dr. Harry G. Kknowles, Little Rock, Ark. and Rev. Alexander McEathron, Holcomb, Wis.

LONDON TO HAVE MODERN BUILDING

LONDON—Nearing completion on the crest of Tower Hill, its own tower rivaling in height the dome of St. Paul's, is the most impressive, the most palatial, the most lighted and probably the most conveniently arranged group of business buildings ever erected in London.

It is the new palace of the Port of London Authority, the future home of the administration and staff that control all the docks, the wharves, and the commercial life of the Thames. The buildings cost $10,000,000, and are acclaimed by architects as one of the structural treasures of London.

In the English renaissance style, and rich in sculptural reliefs, it is a building of five stories. Each of the four sides faces directly a cardinal point of the compass. There is a frontal portico supported by corinthian columns carried up through three stories.

Surrounding the portico is a substantial pyramidal tower in front niche of which is a great figure of Father Thames, and at the sides are emblematical figures of commerce and navigation.

VETERAN CONDUCTOR
DIED THIS MORNING

William Winchester Dies After Long Illness—Funeral Arrangements Not Yet Made.

William Winchester, veteran conductor on the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis railroad, passed away at his home, 619 East College avenue at 1:30 o'clock this (Friday) morning. Mr. Winchester had been in failing health for several months and his death was not unexpected.

Decedent was a railroad man by occupation. For many years he was conductor on the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis passenger train between this city and Havana. He was a man of unflinching courtesy and won many friendships among those whom he met on his train.

His widow and two children, William Winchester, Jr., and Miss Mary Winchester, survive. A more extended obituary and the time of the funeral will be given in a later issue.

DRILLING HAS BEGUN FOR DEEP WELL

Depth of One Hundred Feet Already Reached—Casing Here For the Whole Job.

Work on sinking the deep well test on the Meary farm northeast of Jacksonville has begun. The drill is down to a depth of 100 feet. Mr. Rhodes stated yesterday and 12 1/2 inch casing has been placed to a depth of sixty feet. Gas has been piped to the well and is being used for fuel. All the casing needed for the completed well is on the ground and the work is progressing satisfactorily. When the well reaches five hundred feet a number of oil men, one of them from Bradford, Pa., will be here to remain on the ground and watch for developments.

FISHING GOOD AT VALLEY CITY

Fishing is good on the Illinois river near Valley City, according to Mac Young. A week ago a party of four brought home over 100 pounds of fish for the Young family and their neighbors. Today Mr. Young with Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbs and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Gibbs of Riggs are going to try their luck again.

OXFORDS

Brown, Black or Combinations

Brown is proclaimed Fall's favorite garment shade, hence brown oxfords are assured popularity.

Black oxfords are always wanted—the newest flat vamp modes are here. Combinations of fabrics or of different shades or colors of the same fabric are much in evidence and this popular fashion note is also evident in the several combination effects which are included in our all-embracing collection of oxfords—either strapped or laces—for the new season.

Social Events

Churches Have Hallowe'en Socials

Hallowe'en socials were given at three of the churches last evening. Large numbers of young people attended them and a gay evening was spent in all the places where the latch string was out to welcome the guests for a real Hallowe'en frolic.

A Hallowe'en carnival was given at the Grace church under the auspices of the Epworth League with Miss Lucile Straight as the general chairman of the event. A Hallowe'en masquerade was given at Central Christian church by members of the Senior Christian Endeavor society of which Miss Leota Taylor is president. A Tacky Party was the jolly affair given at Westminster church under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor with Miss Alice Barwise as the president. The programs at the various functions were carried out as published in a former issue of the Journal.

Spent Day in Country

A number of Jacksonville people motored to the country yesterday and spent the day gathering nuts and having a genuine good time. They drove out to a woods southwest of the city, built a fire at noon and cooked a fine dinner. During the afternoon they gathered nuts and drove back to Jacksonville before dusk. Among the members of the party were Mrs. C. H. Patrick, Mrs. Walter Munbower, Mrs. Charles Montgomery, Mrs. Ollie Lawson, Mrs. Edward Young, Mrs. Morris Davis, Mrs. Thomas Quinn and Mrs. Charles Dolan.

Get Acquainted Party At High School

Several hundred were guests at the big get acquainted party at the high school last evening. The affair was a Hallowe'en party sponsored by the members of the Hi-Y club and Girls' Club, and was given for the purpose of all the high school students and members of the faculty getting better acquainted with each other.

The first part of the evening was spent in the high school auditorium where a clever program was given. A number of very amusing and realistic scenes in an old fashioned school were given. Miss Dorothy Dunavan was the teacher and the group of lively and unruly youngsters were taken thru their history, grammar and reading lessons, with a vivid touch of reality. On visitors' day a number of the high school teachers, cleverly represented by some of the students, visited the school and made speeches. Songs and recitations by the "pupils" completed the program.

The company then adjourned to the gymnasium where the rest of the evening was spent. The gym was prettily decorated with autumn leaves, pumpkins and other Hallowe'en trimmings. Games were played and excellent refreshments were served during the evening.

Edward Joaquin was the general chairman in charge of the party and the following committees assisted:

Decorating Committee—Catharine Morris, Allen Kelly, Harold Hunter, Genevieve Rodriguez. Serving and preparation committee—Mary Ethel Hamilton, Miss Merrill, Mary Edith Baumgardner, Melva Moses, Mr. Aggar. Purchasing committee—Edna Cully, Clarence Souza, Miss Tholen.

Program committee—Ruth Staff, Miss Gorham, Lee Baldwin, Miss Fletcher.

Stunts and games—John Putnam, Coach Mitchell, Henry Irving, Miss Ashwood, George Wetzel.

Booths—Bob Reid, Miss Munson, Mr. Barnes, John Hackett, Ethel Stoldt.

Farewell Party for Miss Clara Sehy

Miss Clara Sehy was the guest of honor at a party given last evening at the home of Miss Helen Donovan of South West street. The affair was planned by the stenographers at the State Hospital and was a surprise to Miss Sehy. The evening was very enjoyable spent with cards and dancing and at a late hour delicious refreshments, in keeping with the season, were served. There were about twenty-five guests present. Miss Sehy, who has for some time been employed in the office of the State Hospital is giving up her position and this affair was a farewell party in her honor.

To Entertain at Orleans Home

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lambert will be the hosts at a Hallowe'en dance to be given this evening at their home near Orleans. The guests, about forty in number, have been asked to come in costume and a large number of pretty and clever masquerade costumes will be seen. Prizes are to be given for the best and funniest costumes and for the various games that are to be played.

Dancing will be the main feature of the evening and a good orchestra of Jacksonville will furnish the music. The Lambert home will be attractively decorated for the occasion in true Hallowe'en style and excellent refreshments will be served during the evening. Mrs. George Myers of Orleans will assist in entertaining.

Among the guests who are planning to attend the party from Jacksonville are, Mr. and Mrs. William Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strawn, Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Avey, Miss Lottie Beasly, Miss Emma Woods, Miss Helen Ogle, Miss Elizabeth Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Craven, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Arnold of Arnold, Thomas Haggarty, Claude Cully, Turner Cully and Russell Bennett.

Gives Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. George Cain entertained the members of her club at a bridge luncheon given yesterday in the blue room of the Peacock Inn. Two tables were made up and after the serving of a dainty menu the afternoon hours were spent in playing. The decorations of the room and the favors carried out the Hallowe'en note.

Entertain Club

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stout entertained their card club last evening at a dinner and card party at the Peacock Inn. Dinner was served on the balcony in the blue room and lovely Hallowe'en favors combined with the autumn foliage and flowers made this a most attractive event. After the dinner the evening was spent in cards, three tables being made up for bridge.

Miss Schurz Entertains

Miss Lean Schurz entertained the members of the Five Hundred Club Thursday afternoon at her home east of the city. The hours were spent in playing and the hostess served attractive refreshments. Pretty Hallowe'en favors and prizes in keeping with the season were given.

Westminster Birthday Party.

The ladies of Westminster church held their October birthday social at the home of Mrs. James E. Bentley, 153 Pine street Thursday afternoon. About thirty-five were present and the time was spent with games and contests. Prizes were won by Mrs. Kettner and Miss Farrell Smith. Mrs. Bentley was assisted by Mrs. J. H. Rayhill, Mrs. Walter Bradish and Mrs. Vincent Riley. Miss Eunice Bentley dressed in Hallowe'en costume received the guests at the door. The Bentley home was tastefully decorated in Hallowe'en colors. Refreshments in keeping with the season were served.

Junior Endeavor Had Hallowe'en Social

The Junior Christian Endeavor of the Christian church held a Hallowe'en social last night at the home of Mrs. Robert Muller. Masquerading was the order of the evening, and prizes were given for the best costumes. David Neal, as a nurse, Leroy Shadd as an old man, and Martha McPhail as a ghost were the prize winners. Games, stunts and refreshments in keeping with the season completed the evening.

Entertains For Grandchildren

A party for 24 girls and boys was given between the hours of 5:30 and 8:30 Thursday evening by Mrs. Fred Baldwin, 420 East Superior avenue for her three grandchildren, Dorothy, Lucille and Kenneth. It was a Hallowe'en party, with costumes, music and games suited to the occasion. Prizes for costumes were awarded to Dolores Hoffman, first; James Young, second, and Margaret Abbott, third. In the apple-eating contest Ruth Young and Andrew Crause were winners.

The boys and girls present were: Ruth and Frances Young, Margaret Abbott, Elizabeth Janson, Dorothy and Fern McDonnell, Pauline Geary, Ida Harrison, Leona Shortridge, Bobby and James Young, Andrew Crause, William Crandle, Dolores and Frederick Hoffman, Bernadine and Marceline Souza, Helen Louise Ealy, Frances Taylor and Aline Loneragan. Mrs. Walter Ealy assisted as hostess.

Entertains Bridge Club Members

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stout entertained the members of their bridge club at 7 o'clock dinner Thursday evening in the blue room of the Peacock Inn. Following the serving of a splendid dinner several hours were spent at bridge, three tables being made up. There was also an informal dancing program during the evening, and the affair was a very pleasant one for all present.

Entertains at Weiner Roast

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Mason entertained about forty relatives and friends at a weiner roast at their home about seven miles north of town Wednesday evening. A huge bonfire was made in the orchard and when it had burned down somewhat weiners were roasted. Doughnuts, cookies, apples, hot chocolate and fudge were also served. After everyone had partaken freely of the refreshments, games were played and a lively time enjoyed by all. Among those present were Opal and Una Chappell, Edith Stewart, Pearl and Eva Mason, Nellie and Harriette Craver, Earl Young, Rex Mason, Carl Roach, Frank Hourn, Thomas Craver, and Henry Mason, drove out on a hay rack. Others there were Mr. and Mrs. George Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason of Jacksonville and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bra-ner, Letha Mason, Everett Mason, and Ruth Dewese. Samuel Wood, and Farrel Crabtree of the Ebenezer and Grace Chapel neighborhood.

Hallowe'en Party Tonight

Miss Irma Sibert will give a Hallowe'en dancing party tonight at her home, 413 South Roseusko street. The guests will come masked and a program of games and dancing will be carried out during the evening.

B. Y. P. U. Social Tonight

The Intermediate B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church will hold a social tonight in the church parlors. The committee on arrangements includes Misses Luella Conkle and Donald Casey and they have made ample plans for the evening's entertainment. It is expected that about fifty boys and girls will be present.

Plan Hallowe'en Party

Misses Rose and Esther Weber are to entertain a number of their friends at a Hallowe'en party tonight at their home on East State street. Hallowe'en games and contests will furnish the program of the evening and the occasion will doubtless be an enjoyable one for the young guests.

Hallowe'en Social At Centenary Church

The Queen Esther Circle of Centenary church will hold a Hallowe'en social tonight in the social rooms of the church. Each member of the organization is privileged to invite one guest and it is expected that there will be about fifty present.

The rooms are to be decorated with autumn foliage and various Hallowe'en tokens, this work being in charge of Miss Harriet Six and assistants. Miss Garneda Phelps is chairman of the entertainment committee and a number of very clever Hallowe'en stunts have been planned. Miss Waive Barton, the president, is general chairman and Clarence Bentley the finance chairman. The refreshment committee is chairmaned by Miss Helen Wiley.

Enjoyed Weiner Roast

Members of the Y. W. C. A. of Illinois College enjoyed a weiner roast last night at Mauvaisterre park, the affair being planned especially in honor of the new members of the organization. The committee which had charge of arranging the affair included Miss Isabel Ames, chairman; Misses Elizabeth Scott, Dorothy Farrell, Sarah Russel and Catherine Wilson.

CHURCH ORGANIZATIONS

State Street Women in All Day Session

The Ladies Aid Society of State Street Church held an all day meeting yesterday in the church parlors. There were about forty ladies present at luncheon time when a delicious menu was served by Mrs. Dorothy Woolsey. The members of the Happy Hour Class of the Sunday school. The hours of the day were spent in sewing for Passavant hospital and in working on articles for the annual bazaar to be held on December 1st. During the afternoon Mrs. Carl E. Robinson gave a very interesting talk on the new state constitution and a number of others came in after luncheon to hear Mrs. Robinson's talk. Mrs. C. A. Johnson, president of the society, presided at the meeting.

Prize Winners Named In H. S. Essay Contest

Miss Idabelle Rabjohns wrote the prize winning essay for the girls in the Salvation Army prize essay contest held at the Jacksonville High School. Miss Rabjohns wins $5.00 in gold. Robert Bentley's essay was adjudged first for the boys and $5.00 in gold goes to him for the essay.

Announcement was made by the judges that on account of the great interest displayed on the subject and thought and time that was spent on preparation of these papers as well as uniformly high quality of essays, that it was difficult to select prizes.

Honorable mention for the girls goes to Mary Margaret Brady and Martha Traubarger. Honorable mention for boys to John Bolman and Arthur Befstrom.

The local Salvation Army Corps expressed great appreciation for the work of the boys and girls and are forwarding a number of the papers to the western headquarters at St. Louis.

Great rivalry is being displayed by the members of the various organizations which are taking part in the annual Salvation Army Tag Day and doughnut sale tomorrow. Interest has been augmented in the Tag Day by the prizes offered to the young ladies getting highest amount of contributions, second highest and third highest. These consist of cash prizes of $12.50, $7.50 and $5.00.

"THE SALVATION ARMY IN JACKSONVILLE"

—By Idabelle Rabjohns
Christ once questioning one of his followers said, "Peter lovest Thou Me?" Receiving an answer in the affirmative, he replied: "Feed my sheep." Today many people are heeding the command, "Feed my sheep" and chief among these is the Salvation Army.

The Salvation Army was organized in Jacksonville about thirty years ago on South Main street, under the leadership of Captain Baker, who was a fearless God-fearing man. Interest waxed keen for many weeks but died down a bit and some people asked when the Army was going to leave. The Captain replied, "We have come to stay."

The Salvation Army here in Jacksonville is a branch of the largest charitable organization in the world whose workers are trained in all practical as well as theoretical lines. Its fundamental aim is always the same—the bringing of the individual into personal and friendly relationship with Jesus Christ, the World's Redeemer. Its other purposes include the feeding the hungry, clothing the ragged, housing the homeless, and cleaning the unclean. To the limit of its capacity the Salvation Army opens its doors to every human being who may need help—no condition, no creed, just real need is the sole condition.

Those of us familiar at all with the Army's work know that many in our city, can testify thru experience the real good they are doing. At all seasons of the year and especially at the holiday season these Army workers are indefatigable in their efforts to provide comfort, cheer and happiness to the greatest number.

If more money was available so as to have better facilities for carrying on this God-given work much more could be accomplished in relieving the conditions of those who are for a season, unfortunate. Something for all of us to remember when asked to help this worthy band of workers is something our Master said: "In as much as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

"THE SALVATION ARMY"

—By Robt. Bentley
"For I was an hungered and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger and ye took me in, naked and ye clothed me, I was sick and ye visited me, I was in prison and ye came unto me—For inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of one of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Matt 25:35, 36 and 40.

Can there be any better account of the heroic and splendid work of the Salvation Army than the beautiful passage quoted above gives. "An hungered and ye gave me meat." Only last year they distributed 27 baskets to the poor and needy, 765 meals were served the orphans and unfortunate. "A stranger and ye took me in." A large portion of those 765 meals were served to strangers picked up off the street.

"A man may be down, but he is never out" is a motto of the Salvation Army. Is not that in coordination with the clause: "Naked and ye clothed me." Yes, and the city is watched to see that the truth of this statement is made unpregnable. And again, "I was sick and ye visited me." They have made many visits to the hospital. The joy and peace they install into the hearts of the bereaved and sorrowful is plausible. The work in the prisons is another laudable function of this order.

Is there any other society or sect or order in existence today that is fulfilling the precepts contained in the above passage, more fully or with more spirit than the Salvation Army? How much are you doing to help the poor, the needy, or the imprisoned? We cannot all give as much time and strength to those causes as the Salvation Army does, we have other work equally as important, but we can all give a portion of our income to help this work progress, and even "as ye have done it unto the least of one of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

LITERBERRY SOCIETY HAD OPEN MEETING

Baptist Ladies Aid Members Entertain Families and Friends Thursday Evening—Other Literberry News.

Literberry, Oct. 26.—The annual open meeting of the Literberry Baptist church aid society was held Thursday evening at the church. There were sixty or more persons in attendance, including the families of the members and their friends. A beautiful supper was served at 6 o'clock, all sorts of good things being included in the menu.

After the supper came an informal program of games and contests and a good time generally, this being in charge of Mrs. John Guy, the president of the society. The supper committee included Mrs. Durrell Crum, chairman; Mrs. Ona Crum and Mrs. Willard Young.

Gave Dinner Party
Mrs. Melissa Paul entertained a number of friends Thursday at dinner, the affair being especially in honor of Mrs. Peter Lowden, who is soon to return to her home in California after an extended visit in this state. The guests were Mrs. Abe Litter, Mrs. Earl Litter and son, Mrs. James Lowden and Mrs. Arthur Willner.

News Notes
Mrs. Reaugh Jennings of Jacksonville spent Thursday with Mrs. John Guy.

Clarence Thompson and Frank Rolf of Arcadia left last night for St. Louis where they will buy cattle.

Mrs. Mattie Dunavan of Blackburn, Mo., is a guest at the home of Mrs. Joe Litter.

HALLOWEEN PARTY NEAR ALEXANDER

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson entertained about forty-five of their friends Thursday evening at their home north of Alexander. It was a Halloween party and the decorations and refreshments were in keeping with the season. The guests came masked and an informal program of fortune telling and various Halloween stunts furnished the amusement. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, Miss Mary Johnson and James Davidson of Jacksonville, Mrs. Fahrendocher of Springfield, and Mr. and Mrs. John Dorwart of Waverly.

RETURN FROM WINCHESTER

Mrs. Lena Smithson and Mr. and Mrs. J. Ralph Brown have returned from Winchester, where they have visited for the past few days with friends.

TO ATTEND D. A. R. MEETING

A district meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution is to be held today at Lincoln and among those who will attend will be Miss Effie Epler of this city. Miss Epler is state librarian and will give a talk on some activities of the D. A. R.

CAMPAIGN FOR BUSINESS WILL BEGIN SOON

Commercial Division of C. of C. Arranging For Six Weeks Special Drive—Will Offer Prizes To Value of Five Thousand Dollars.

Members of the commercial division of the chamber of commerce held an enthusiastic meeting Thursday night with C. J. Buhner presiding. A special merchandising plan was explained by Mrs. G. C. Bedell of East St. Louis, and was approved in a 100 per cent way.

This plan of giving away $5,000 worth of gifts to the buying public has been used with splendid results in a number of other cities. After the Jacksonville men heard the details last night they entered into it enthusiastically. Teams of workers will start out today in the effort to secure the co-operation of 100 Jacksonville merchants.

The purpose is to give away an automobile and other articles of genuine worth to a total value of $5,000 during the period of six weeks from Nov. 15 to Jan. 2. Merchants co-operating will give coupons to their cash customers and certain fortunate ones will become the owners of the automobile and other splendid gifts.

None but members of the chamber of commerce are to co-operate in this merchandising plan, and the committee is expecting that a number of merchants who are not now members of the chamber of commerce will enroll as soon as they learn details of the plan.

Mrs. Bedell is associated with the business organization of East St. Louis and came to Jacksonville last night to explain the plan merely as a matter of courtesy. The commercial division expects to advertise the plan thoroughly thru out a wide territory in all directions from Jacksonville.

C. OF C. TO LEAD IN ARMISTICE DAY PLANS

Conference of Organizations Will Be Called at Early Date—Publicity Committee Named By Directors.

The chamber of commerce directors held the weekly meeting Thursday night with R. Y. Rowe presiding. At the suggestion of the forum committee some changes will be made in the second floor assembly room and it will be used for the forum meetings instead of the American Legion hall on the third floor. The second floor room is more accessible and offers some other advantages.

A letter was read by Secretary Welch from the Brown Shoe Co. indicating that the site for the erection of the company's next branch factory had not yet been chosen. This city will be advised when such action is taken.

The chairman announced the appointment of a committee on publicity, including C. Y. Rowe, Wood Phillips and E. A. Olds. General matters of business were discussed informally before adjournment.

BURGOO SUPPER AT LYNNVILLE CHURCH

Hundreds Attended This Event Thursday Evening—Musical Program Given.

A successful burgoo supper was given by the Ladies' Aid of the Lynnville Christian church Thursday evening. The serving of burgoo, chicken sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee began at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and continued until 10 o'clock.

The attendance was large and the event was in every way successful. As a special feature of the evening musical numbers were given by a trio, two violins and a piano, by Miss Edna Coultas, Sherman Coultas and Harland Moses.

Mrs. Fred Jewsbury is president of the Aid society and the arrangements for the event were in charge of several committees, practically all the members of the Aid society assisting with the event.

The soup makers were Albert Jewsbury and John Heaton, who have had long experience in that work.

MISS COOPER RETURNS FROM LIBRARY MEET

The recent meeting of the Illinois Library association held at the Chicago Beach hotel was very largely attended by librarians from all parts of the state. Miss Josephine Cooper of the staff of the Jacksonville library represented the local institution.

The session was accounted one of the most interesting ever held in the history of the organization. Men and women of literary prominence took part in the program and many suggestions were discussed which are of practical benefit to the librarians in their day to day work.

FRENCH CLUB HELD FIRST MEETING

The first meeting of the French club of Illinois college was held at academy hall, Thursday evening, October 26. A very interesting program was given. Eunice Williamson and Helen Cleary gave selections in French and Clara Smith and Edmund Munger gave piano solos. Refreshments were served afterwards while the members were engaged in informal conversation.

Alvin Coates and Earl Sturdy of Lynnville were among motorists in town Thursday.

Gottlieb Meyer of Loami was a visitor with friends and relatives Thursday.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE PROGRESSING

The Salvation Army drive for funds is progressing rapidly according to Cole Rowe, chairman of the committee sponsoring the work of raising $2,250 for the Army's needs for the coming year. With two days of the four allotted for the drive past, between $1,600 and $1,700 has been raised, not counting results from several workers who have not reported.

Saturday will be tag day for the drive, with at least fifty young women on the streets selling tags for the fund. The famous "Dollar Doughnuts" of the organization will be pushed especially in this tag sale.

Y. W. C. A. L. C. HOLD WEINER ROAST

The Y. W. C. A. of Illinois college held its annual weiner roast, Thursday afternoon. All of the girls met at academy hall and hiked to the dam where weiners, pickles, buns and many other good things awaited them. After roasting the weiners, the girls gathered around the bonfire and sang songs. The social committee was in charge of the affair. Isabel Ames as chairman and Mrs. R. V. Bussey, advisor.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lemon and son, Claude, and Mrs. Emma Armstrong were roodhouse people who made a visit in Jacksonville Thursday.

J. W. STRAWN IS INJURED IN FALL

Internal injuries were feared as a result of a fall from an apple tree by J. W. Strawn Thursday morning. Mr. Strawn, who lives northeast of the city, was at work on an eighteen foot ladder picking apples, when the ladder slipped, and fell, lighting on his left side.

His son, Harry Strawn, was notified, and a physician summoned. It was ascertained that no bones were broken, although painful bruises made it difficult to determine the extent of the injury.

SOY BEAN GROWERS TO MEET SATURDAY

A meeting of soy bean growers of the county is scheduled to take place at 3 o'clock Saturday at the farm bureau office. The purpose is to discuss a method of making up carloads for shipment to the oil factories. It is important that every man with a portion of a carload to ship take advantage of this opportunity for co-operation.

RUSH A SHIP TO RUSSIA.

A year ago the First Baptist church joined with hundreds of other churches in the Northern Baptist convention held in sending a ship load of clothing to the poverty stricken countries of Czechoslovakia, Latvia and Poland. The slogan then was "Ship a Ship of Fellowship." Again the call for assistance has come from across the seas and the call this year is "Rush a Ship to Russia." The Baptist Women's union of the local congregation will take charge of the securing of the donations and the shipping of the same to New York where a ship will convey the great cargo to Russia in time for the Christmas season. All donations must be in the hands of the local organization by November 10. The call has been made for overcoats, suits, underwear, shawls, stockings, socks, sweaters, towels, warm garments for men, women and children. All articles must be clean, serviceable and in good condition.

It is said that multitudes of people in Russia, during the famine, bartered their clothing for food. Unless help comes, they cannot survive the approaching winter. Dr. Abernathy, President Harding's pastor, of his visit abroad this summer was greeted by many grateful peasants, wearing the garments they were sent over last year in the "Ship of Fellowship."

Having rented my farm, situated 3 miles south of Prentice, I will hold a closing out sale Nov. 1, 1922, consisting of farming implements, harness, horses, mules, cattle, hogs, sheep, hay, and apples on tree. Dinner served by Ladies Aid of Berea church.

CITY RALLY OF CHURCH YOUNG PEOPLE.

Big preparations are being made by Epworth league of the Centenary Methodist church to entertain the Federated Young Peoples societies of the city at the fifth Sunday rally which will be held on next Sunday at 6:30 p. m. The musical part of the program will be in charge of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Westminster Presbyterian church and they are planning to outdo anything that has occurred in previous rallies.

From the south end of the city will come the Epworth league of Brooklyn Methodist church, with a program that will put inspiration into the service from start to finish. From their number has been selected Otis F. Ivie to conduct the services and he is asking every society in the city to have part on the program.

The Baptist Young Peoples' union is planning to meet at the Baptist church and proceed in a body to the place of meeting. All senior societies in the various churches are expecting to dispense with their regular Sunday service in order to attend this quarterly gathering of the city's young people. President Arthur L. Howells of the Federated Young Peoples' societies is requesting that the announcement be made in all the churches on Sunday, and that the night services in the church be held off a quarter of an hour to permit the young people to return to their respective churches.

HOUDINI FINDS DANGER PSYCHIC PHENOMENA
 Boston.—(By the A. P.)—Morbidness and melancholia induced by interest in psychic phenomena threaten the health and sanity of many persons in the opinion of Harry Houdini, president of the Society of American Magicians, expressed at the annual dinner of the society here. He spoke of his 25 years' investigation of the subject and said he had never seen anything to convince him that there had been a single communication from the dead.

"I have never seen any of the mediums or spiritualists do anything or produce a single effect which I could not, thru my knowledge of magic, account for or duplicate," he asserted. "I have had nine pacts with the dead, while I have agreed with me to try to communicate with me from beyond, but each has been fruitless."

98 Out of Every 100 Women Benefited

An Absolutely Reliable Statement Important to Every Woman

Remarkable Results Shown by a Nation Wide Canvass of Women Purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. —50,000 Women Answer—

For some time a circular has been enclosed with each bottle of our medicine bearing this question: "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?"

Replies, to date, have been received from over 50,000 women answering that question.

98 per cent of which say YES. That means that 98 out of every 100 women who take the medicine for the ailments for which it is recommended are benefited by it.

This is a most remarkable record of efficiency. We doubt if any other medicine in the world equals it.

Think of it—only two women out of 100 received no benefit—98 successes out of a possible 100.

Did you ever hear of anything like it? We must admit that we, ourselves, are astonished.

Such evidence should induce every woman suffering from any ailment peculiar to her sex to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and see if she can't become one of the 98 THE LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO., Lynn, Mass.

Of course we know that our medicine does benefit the large majority of women who take it. But that only two out of 100 received no benefit is most astonishing.

It only goes to prove, however, that a medicine specialized for certain definite ailments—not a cure-all—one that is made by the most scientific process; not from drugs, but from a combination of nature's roots and herbs, can and does do more good than hastily prepared prescriptions.

You see, we have been making, improving and refining this medicine for over 50 years until it is so perfect and so well adapted to women's needs that it actually has the virtue to benefit 98 out of every 100 women who take it.

It's reliability and recognized efficiency has gained for it a sale in almost every country in the world—leading all others.

FARM BUREAU
NOTES

There is to be a conference of farm advisers in Springfield at the St. Nicholas hotel, November 1 and 2. The meeting has been called as a district conference by the new state leader of farm advisers, W. H. Smith. H. C. Hackle-man and W. H. Smith will discuss the value of soy beans in livestock feeding and the present outlook for the commercial use of soy beans. W. P. Flint will discuss the present status of the European corn borers and the chinch bug. H. C. M. Case of the department of farm management and organization will discuss the agricultural problems of 1923. Dr. H. H. Mitchell will tell what is now known about vitamins and F. P. Handschin will give a list of farm mechanics projects for 1923.

In addition to this there will be a round table discussion of current topics by the farm advisers and committee meetings with the departmental advisers of the College of Agriculture at the University of Illinois.

The soy bean growers of the county are requested to meet at the farm bureau office at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon for the purpose of discussing a method of making up carloads for shipment to the oil factories. Several men have less than carload lots and it is important that every man with surplus seed to sell co-operate by attending this meeting.

The members of the advisory council, consisting of the township and community chairmen are asked to meet at the farm bureau office at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon for the purpose of discussing a new method of nominating and electing officers and members of the executive committee. Our present system is not adaptable to either a large or scattered membership. The result of Saturday's conference will be placed before the executive committee on Saturday, November 4.

FRENCH WINES ARE CHEAP IN RUSSIA

MOSCOW—Pre-war stocks of French wines that thirsty Americans would find priceless are rapidly diminishing in Russia. The newly opened government retail wine stores do a rushing business in Moscow and Petrograd, and soon, connoisseurs fear, only Russian wines will be left in stock.

After the Soviet government abolished prohibition and placed the country on a wine and beer basis, all of the stocks of Burgundies, Bordeaux and Champagnes which were sealed up when the Czar, early in the war, decreed prohibition, and other private stocks which were confiscated by the Bolsheviks, were placed in the market. Some went to private dealers, but by far the largest share has been reserved for the government shops. The principal one of these in Moscow is an elaborate establishment, with uniformed footmen at the doors. Before it long lines of carriages may be seen at certain hours of the day, and it generally is thronged with buyers.

In these stores good French claret is still to be had at the equivalent of about $1.50 per bottle, while excellent champagnes, some of them of particularly good years, are sold at from five to six dollars a quart.

Russian wines, produced in the Caucasus and in the Crimea, can be had at from fifty cents a bottle for claret to about two dollars a bottle for excellent port and Madeira types. There are large stocks of these on hand, and the Russian vineyards are producing more this year. It is still illegal to sell vodka, the "bootlegging" is quite prevalent in Moscow. Occasionally a drunken man is to be seen in the streets. The high power of spirits that are sold surreptitiously are generally impure and have the usual disastrous effects, but those in the know have little difficulty in securing good Russian cognac at from three to four dollars a bottle. The legal limit, however, is 20 percent alcohol, this being the Russian conception of "light wines."

In Petrograd the restaurants are licensed to sell wine to patrons, but in Moscow it is only openly procurable in the shops. Restaurant diners either bring their own, or buy it surreptitiously from waiters at high prices.

The Soviet government derives a large revenue from the sale of wines.

Screen Will Epit Life of Charles XII.

STOCKHOLM — Charles XII, perhaps the greatest national hero of Sweden's history, and in his time one of the most feared warriors of Europe—he was killed in 1718—will again arise before the eyes of his many admirers—this time on the silver screen. A corporation is now being formed for the production of a film depicting the outstanding events of the meteoric military and political career of this Swedish hero who, taking the field in person, conquered the Russians on one hand and the Danes on the other, and was killed in action at the age of thirty-six.

The taking of this film is inspired mainly by patriotic motives. The capital needed for the production is already fully subscribed and the work will begin without delay.

Solomon Hart and John Dwyer of Franklin were in the city yesterday on business.

H. L. Caldwell made a business trip to Hillview yesterday.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Mrs. Marguerite Pannier Forrest of the Woman's College of Music, sang a group of songs Thursday morning at the regular assembly period. The selections of Mrs. Forrest were well suited to the occasion and the students were enthusiastic in their response to the singer.

The following program has been announced for the meeting of the High School Dramatic club on Friday November 3:

September, Theater Magazine, "An Interview with Eleanor Duse," Elizabeth Wainwright.

Humorous Reading, Eleanor Dinwiddie.

The new Goodyear
Cross-Rib Tread Cord

Did You Get the Bottom
Price, After All?

The man who buys a "long discount" tire usually finds himself troubled by the above question.

Did he pay less for the tire than his neighbor might have paid, or actually did he pay more?

Did he get the bottom price, when all is said and done, or could he perhaps have driven a sharper bargain?

Was the net price really more than he might have had to pay for a tire of established reputation and value?

In the belief that the average motorist prefers a frank and open transaction, we built the new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord and discounted the "discount" in advance.

Instead of listing it at a high price, to enable the dealer to attract you with a so-called "long discount," we list it as low as we profitably can.

We build it of high-grade long-staple cotton, using the patented Goodyear method of group-ply construction, and sell it at a lower price than you are asked to pay for many "long discount" tires of unknown worth.

Compare these prices with NET prices you are asked to pay for "long discount" tires ous conditions" was the keynote of an address by William G. Bierd, president of the Chicago & Alton Railroad Co., in the opening meeting of the season of the White Hall Brotherhood in the Presbyterian church Tuesday night. A representative audience heard the great railroadman in his presentation of economic conditions as they affect the whole nation at this time, and no address in White Hall has created more wide interest, as it made a deep impression on the thought of those who heard it.

Samuel G. Sykes presided, and there were a few remarks by Representative Sonneman of Carlinville, who expressed the hope to be able to return at a later date and address the Brotherhood. Rev. Ben Claire Crowe, of Roodhouse, sang Kipling's "On the Road to Mandalay," responding to a hearty encore. A remarkable feature was the presence of a delegation of engineers and trainmen from Roodhouse, including the local chairman, T. F. Shuman, who was accompanied by his wife. One of the regrets expressed by Mr. Bierd was the last-minute decision of his wife not to come along. Telegrams of regret were received from W. G. Ebey, Hamlet, N. C.; A. P. Titus, chief operating official of the C. & A. and from D. J. Deasy, trainmaster and W. B. Hult, chief train dispatcher, both of Roodhouse.

Mr. Bierd began in a friendly way by stating that it was a pleasure and privilege to be present where everybody knows he is shaking the hand of a friend; the best thing there is in life, a better life than we have in the city. Some of his remarks were: "I am impressed with the character of a population that maintains such an organization as this to which we must look for the future real safety of affairs. The business, political and social affairs and the security of the community are directed from these associations.

It is time when men in all walks of life must exchange views. Men everywhere find themselves in a disturbed frame of mind.

From the viewpoint of the railroad systems, we do not differ from many other lines of business. The most important are the agricultural producers, whose interests and welfare should be considered first at all times, but are not always so considered.

Next in importance is the system of transportation.

Dependent on Railroads

Other countries rely on railroads in a minor degree, but here we are dependent on rail transportation, because we have no water transportation. Water transportation in this country is hardly feasible in view of the fact that the general movement of traffic across the country is from east to west.

The railroad systems represent 66,000 locomotives of an average value of $17,000, 54,000 passenger cars of an average value of $12,000 and 2,300,000 freight cars. There are 256,000 miles in the United States with an aggregate value of cost of original construction of $19,000,000,000 or a reproduction value of $20,000,000,000. This valuation includes the so-called watered corporation values. The United States government gives the railroads a physical valuation of $18,500,000,000, showing a difference of only half a million.

Did the early builders think, plan, build well? They are gone, but the work is here, and their heritage is in the trusteeship of us railroaders of today to operate in behalf of the American people.

Are the people getting what they pay for? We cannot justify or maintain present rates; they were never justifiable. They are the only result of extravagance and overburdened cost that necessitated the rate raise of 100 per cent over the pre-war period.

Congress directed the interstate commerce commission to fix a return of 5 per cent on property valuation, and these returns in 1920 were 3.3 per cent and in 1921 4.1 per cent. For the previous two years the American people in addition to the rate raise paid $1,400,000,000 for the governmental railroad experiment, and have half a billion yet to pay.

Applause greeted the speaker when he asked the people to vote against government interference in private business's never moved one ton of freight that the railroad men themselves would not have moved, and the last year of government operation the tonnage was lessened.

The speaker sounded a note of warning against special legislation, and referred to a growing tendency to tear down traditional government by changing the government, overthrowing the courts and putting congress above the courts, involving danger greater than since the civil war in the increasing disregard of property rights.

"You," my friends, "are in a clearer frame of mind to think about these things out here where you do not come in such close contact with the larger disturbing element as do we. We have not the traditional securities of Great Britain, France, Italy, China and Japan. The constitution is our only safe anchor and security in providing the three departments of government, the legislature, executive and judicial, the latter being separated from the political influences and intrigue that is in close contact with the legislative and executive."

News Notes

Mrs. W. G. Shaw was here from Los Angeles this week in company with Mrs. Ewart of Jefferson City, Mo., her sister-in-law, and Mrs. Carswell of Kansas City. Mrs. Shaw is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Ewart. Her marriage in California has given her command of riches, but she did not forget the old folks back home, an aged couple residing some distance west of Carrollton. Mrs. Shaw came to White Hall and consulted C. F. Wenken, a real estate man, and found in the S. S. Cochran property on South Carr street what she believed would be an ideal home for her father and mother. She proceeded to buy the property and a considerable amount of fixtures, and it becomes the future home of Mr. and Mrs. Ewart, who will move here at once.

About a year ago Stanley Thom opened a small neighborhood store on Lincoln street, immediately west of the C. & A. track, and the venture was commented upon at the time in this letter in a very commendatory way. Just now the young man is erecting an addition that will double the capacity of his store. The young man says he owes much to good words in his behalf at the time he ventured on his business career, and this fact he imparts to everybody in support of the value of the press.

I. C. Burbridge has suffered a third stroke of paralysis, and his death may occur at any time. W. C. Chapin has been confined at home with erysipelas for a couple of weeks. Both are in the 80-year old class.

STUDENTS WRITE NEW COLLEGE SONG

Clarence Weber Wrote Words and Frank Collins the Music—Heard By Student Association Thursday.

"We Love You, Illinois," is the title of a new song which made its appearance on the Illinois College campus Thursday. It was written by two juniors, Clarence Weber, who wrote the words, and Frank Collins, who is responsible for the music.

The song had its maiden hearing before the Student Association, where its rendition by Roger Carter, Russell Pinkerton, Clarence Weber, Richard Thompson and Willard Ruschendorf was received with vociferous applause. The words are as follows: We hail thee, Alma Mater Dear, We love thy stately elms, Your lofty aims we all revere, We love you, Illinois.

CHORUS

So let's sing for Illinois, And let's work for Illinois, And for aye be true to white & blue, Keep her standards flying high And together then we'll cry, We love you, Illinois.

Historic walls far famed and fair, Tradition old and dear, A spirit far beyond compare, We love you, Illinois.

We'll ne'er forget Old Illinois, No matter where we go, We'll always sing with lusty joy, We love you, Illinois.

Sarazen's Defeat of Hagen Wins Title of Champion

By ROY GROVE.

Rye, N. Y., Oct. 26.—It was a question well answered. Answered by a 21 year old boy, Gene Sarazen, on the twenty-seventh hole of the Westchester Biltmore Country club.

By defeating the greatest there was left of living golfers, Walter Hagen, he has proved his own greatness. Proved that there is nothing of the fluke about his game; it is not luck, there is nothing of the sensational excepting that he alone is playing his own game in a sensational way.

Severest Test of All.

It is true that he defeated the pick of the American pros at the Oakmont tournament, but Hagen, the master and British open champion, was not there.

The severest test of Gene Sarazen's golf was that of meeting Hagen over the marathon route of 6,605 yards at the Rye links. The defeat of Hagen proves Sarazen to be one of the greatest golf marvels in the history of the game.

In addition to his medal and match plays that have won for him the open championship at Skokie and the P. G. A. tournament at Oakmont it is also remembered that he defeated the big three.

Now It's Hagen.

First Long Jim Barnes went down before the little fellow on the Homestead links and then he measured Jock Hutchison and now it is Hagen. More so Hagen, because he beat him at his own game, that of out-driving the famous long driver and at times out approaching him.

Willie Hunter, former British amateur champion, remarked that he had never before in all his experience seen anybody drive so far, hard, accurate and so consistently as Sarazen.

It is true that Hagen has played better games than his exhibition with Sarazen, but it does not lessen the credit due the little Italian as Hagen's superior.

BLUENOSE DEFEATS HENRY FORD IN FINAL

(By The Associated Press)

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 26.—(By The A. P.)—The Schooner Bluenose of Canada is again champion of the International Fishing Fleets, Captain Angus Walters and his fellow luncheoners today scored a second success against the Henry Ford, American challenger and Captain Clayton Morrissey and his crew of Gloucester men. The margin was one of seven minutes, 51 seconds, about same as the Bluenose led off yesterday. While the Gloucester boat, in fact, won two races, the first was declared unofficial.

Today's was another smashing contest. A northwester that ran from a moderate speed at the start up to 28 knots blew the boats about the 40 mile course in the fastest time attained to date, four hours, 48 minutes, 28 seconds, for the Bluenose, four hours, 56 minutes, 29 seconds for the Henry Ford.

On the windward leg the Henry Ford lost her foremast mast which snapped half way to the peak.

GOVERNMENT WARS ON TICKET SCALPERS

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—With every seat to the University of Chicago-Princeton game sold days in advance and thousands of disappointed fans trying to find a way to witness the game, government agents today renewed with vigor their drive against ticket scalpers preying on football enthusiasts.

Twelve O. J. Doe warrants were issued by United States Commissioner Mason in connection with the sale of unstamped tickets to the game by speculators. The laws require that excess prices for tickets be stamped on the back, the government collecting half the excess. University of Chicago officials in their campaign against scalping last Saturday refused to admit holders of such stamped tickets and three purchasers of tickets from speculators yesterday filed suits aggregating $20,000 against the University.

BASEBALL TEAMS IN MADRID, SPAIN

Purdue.

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 26.—Twenty-six of the Purdue varsity football squad left here this evening at 6:30 for Iowa City, where on Saturday the Boiler-makers will oppose the Iowa eleven. The final workout was held tonight and consisted of light forward passing scrimmage.

Northwestern.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—With about seven regiments on the hospital list because of the hard scrimmage yesterday, Coach Thistlewaite sent his men thru only a signal drill this afternoon. Weineke was out on the field practicing kicking and has improved considerably. His heavy booting is expected to be a big factor in the game a week from Saturday with the University of Illinois.

Penfield, Patterson, Wolfe, McElwain, Taylor and Herman had places on sidelines. Their injuries are not considered serious, and are expected to be back in the lineup soon.

CHICAGO MYSTERY TEAM OF CONFERENCE

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 26.—Chicago will enter the big intersectional football game with Princeton on Stagg Field here Saturday afternoon as the "mystery" team of the Western Conference a team of hidden power, which is just as Alonzo Stagg, the 61 year old coach of the Maroons, had planned.

Not one of the 32,000 persons lucky enough to hold a ticket for the game could figure out tonight whether the Maroons have a highly polished open attack up their sleeve or whether Stagg plans to win by straight football tactics with a few simple plays which he has shown in the three games this season.

Chicago triumphed over Georgia, Northwestern and Purdue while in second place at times has been loose and erratic football observers are of the opinion that Stagg has developed one of the best teams that has trod the Chicago field in years.

Program of Events Announced for Tuesday Night.

At a meeting of the Halloween committee, held yesterday afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, plans for the big Halloween festival to be staged Tuesday night, October 31, were completed. The program for the evening events was announced as follows:

7:15 O'clock—Band concert by Illinois college band of 40 pieces.
7:30 O'clock—Assembling of all persons in costume on the north side of the square. It is important in forming the parade that the following rules be observed: Lineup in twos with the head of the parade in front of the Chamber of Commerce rooms, facing west. Lineup according to your make up, i. e., all policemen first, all clowns next, all Indians next, etc.

8 O'clock—Grand parade headed by the band. The parade will circle the square three times.

8:30 O'clock—Judging of the costumes, north side of square. Judging of window displays.

Our first display and sale of factory samples of fine Fur Coats, Wraps and Scarfs for this season will be held next SATURDAY.

CURED BY NATIVE HERB.

On board a vessel bound for India recently a man was bitten by a poisonous reptile both the ship doctor and a famous surgeon failed to control the poison fast spreading through his system. In a day the vessel reached port. An Indian medicine man was sent for, who produced a native herb which quickly allayed the man's life was saved.

Roots and herbs are nature's assistants in combating disease. That well known medicine for ailments peculiar to women, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is prepared from roots and herbs, possessing medicinal properties of great value in the treatment of such ailments.

This is proved by the letters of recommendation we are continually publishing in this paper for it.—Adv.

NEWS FOR EX-SERVICE MEN

Bloomington, Ill.—Backed by both city and county authorities, the American Legion of Bloomington is promoting a campaign, to secure a burial ground in Bloomington for soldiers and sailors of the world war. A cemetery sufficient in size for 300 graves has been set aside and $850 paid on it, and for the balance of $1,500 an appeal has been made to the public.

Five bodies of veterans already repose there.

The appeal for public contribution toward the payment price was made only after the county board of supervisors and the Bloomington city council had been halted in their intent to pay the money, by the information that legally they were without authority for the gift.

This information was delayed sufficiently long however, so that a soldier cemetery has been laid out, and a deed given.

Springfield, Ill.—Major L. P. Owen of Springfield, former member of the executive board of the American Legion, has been appointed by Department Commander Schick as state vocation officer, to succeed B. A. BAD LUCK AND THE DEVIL PERSUED HIM.

"I don't think any one has had more bad luck and sickness than I have. In 1905 I had two ribs, an arm and collar bone broken in a railroad accident. Then I had pneumonia. After recovering I crossed a pasture when a bull chased me, tossed me over the fence and broke my right leg. In 1910 I had typhoid fever; since then severe stomach, and liver trouble, which no medicine or doctor touched until two years ago I got a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which proved the first ray of light. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded."

LIQUOR AND THE BIBLE

Editor Journal:

I note the article in the Journal by Mr. Lippincott, and I beg to suggest that Mr. Lippincott might leave the impression that I was constraining the Bible. I am no theologian and would not assume to construe the Bible, what was quoted or cited at my request in the Journal was by Dr. Mangasarian, a learned theologian, a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary and of foreign schools an author of international eminence on theological questions. Dr. Mangasarian also said they had wine at the Last Supper and that the Lord said they would have it again in heaven, so that heaven would not be prohibition territory. But of course this would not be heaven and I have at times even wondered if we had not lived in some other world before and been sent here for punishment.

I note Mr. Lippincott quotes the scripture that if to eat meat offend our brother not to eat meat. That is not the practice by any successful person in this country under our system of government. The railroads, the banks and every one who gains in a material way by making a profit off of or using their fellow man does not regard and prattle that rule, no difference what church he belongs to, no more than he loves his enemies.

Mr. Lippincott talks of anarchy; when the Dred Scott decision was handed down by the Supreme Court of the United States, the great Abraham Lincoln said it might be the law but he favored changing the law, was he an anarchist?

Every thinking lawyer in this country knows that we have some laws that need to be changed. Does any person think the governing conditions under the law at this time are perfect? Don't you believe that more just conditions could be had by changing the law in some respects?

Why are new laws being made all the time if the ones we have are perfect? Why are we trying to get better men in office all the time except for the purpose of having better laws made by our legislative branches of government?

As far as I am personally concerned the liquor question is not a moral question and I care little for a theological discussion of it. I do not consider that we necessarily should follow the mores of two thousand years ago, and such precedent would bear lightly; as for the scripture quoted by Mr. Lippincott to my mind it has little or no application to the question at hand.

I was somewhat amused at the statement in Mr. Lippincott's first letter signed "Citizen" that the wine in the Bible was unfermented grape juice, it reminded me of the little boy's bear story which he "made him own self." I note in his last article that it made their eyes red and had the usual effects that wine always has where used to excess. Nature is a reformer and will punish those who go to excesses, if necessary will kill one who drinks to excess. We can go to other excesses, in pleasure, in business, in religion. We should be "temperate in all things," so I have been advised, or we will be punished.

Drinking is an economic question. About ninety per cent of the people are laboring people, largely wage earners in some form or other, renters, tenants, wage earners, of all kinds to be desirable to those who employ them or who they serve, should be industrious, frugal, thrifty and temperate. Such could obviously live on less and give more service for a less wage than the more profligate. They are more desirable for exploitation, and so, the employing class want them to be temperate. It's not immoral now, or unlawful for those who have purchased and have stored quantities to drink, it never was considered immoral for aristocracy to have their wines. There is "class" to that.

There is a social question to consider of what makes people drink to excess, the environment, the long hours of weakening toil which stimulants relieve, the supplement to insufficient food, and clothing, to bring color to life and temporary ease into lives drab with the monotony of impoverished misery. More of these things seem to have come to the minds of those who want that others should make sacrifice where no sacrifice is required of themselves.

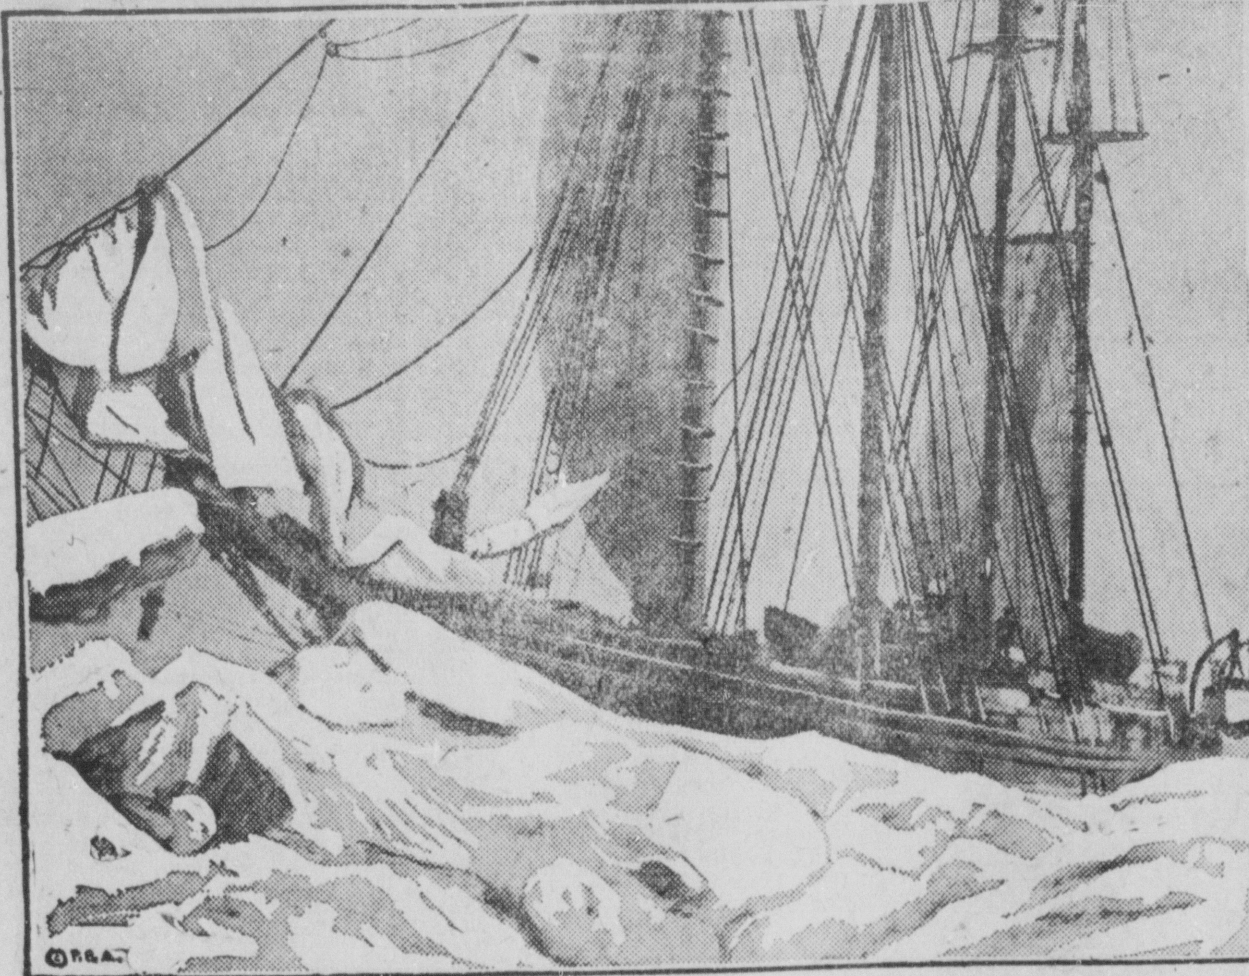

I think social justice would bring about a healthy move for real temperance. I believe in temperance as much as any one but temperance and the Volstead act are different. I know that as the breweries and other special interests have dominated politics is a disgrace to the form of government and an injustice to humanity.

I would suggest that in this country we must produce a common manhood of political capacity or we will be ruined as a civilized nation or as a power for the advancement of human rights. The first starting point toward civilization is in eating at the table without fighting over the food. We are still doing that, but we are fighting each other for the food barely out of sight of the table, we must help one another, we must cooperate. We have a law now to prevent the physically strong from robbing the mentally strong in business, while those not so strong mentally are not protected, "that's business," covers it all and is a complete defense.

PLEAS O. HARDWICK WEDS IN OKLAHOMA

Former Lieutenant in Charge of the S. A. T. C. at Illinois College Marries Miss Louise Cook—Will Reside in Tulsa.

Word has been received by Jacksonville friends of Pleas O. Hardwick, former lieutenant of the Illinois College Student Army Training corps, of his marriage, which took place quietly in Oklahoma City last week.

The bride was Miss Louise Cook, of Chetotah, Okla., a graduate of the University of Oklahoma, a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority, and an accomplished pianist, having received her musical training in Kansas City. After her graduation she was instructor in French, music, and horsemanship at Camp Trail's End, Lexington, Ky. Last year she was head of the English department of the senior high school in Henrietta, Okla.

The Hardwicks expect to make their home in Tulsa, where Mr. Hardwick will teach in the University of Tulsa. Mr. Hardwick is private secretary to J. W. Gilliland of the Gilliland Oil Co., with headquarters in Tulsa. His business takes him to the leading cities of the southwest and of the east.

Mr. Hardwick is planning to make a visit to Jacksonville and vicinity in the near future, and friends hope that he may bring his bride with him. Those who knew him during his short residence in the city rejoice in his well deserved material and matrimonial success.
